Course Requirements

Thesis Papers

All students should prepare a preliminary discussion for 10 of the seminar sessions (+/- 400 words), to be posted on OLAT by 9 a.m. on Tuesday of the respective week. This should entail a thesis, but could also contain a series of questions, comments or associations. It should present an argument; indeed, help you practice your skills at argumentation. At the same time, it will facilitate class discussion and allow us to see in what directions you have been thinking while preparing for each session.

Theory Summaries

All students must also compile a detailed summary of a text for one of the class sessions (to be determined at the beginning of the course) that presents the key concepts and arguments of the text (2-3 pages). Please send it as a PDF to my assistant Morgane Ghilardi (morgane.ghilardi@es.uzh.ch) one week after the respective session at the latest. The summaries will be uploaded to OLAT.

Essay

All students should hand in an essay (4000-5000 words):

- The essay should discuss at least one of the theoretical texts from the seminar program but could involve a comparison of several theoretical texts discussed.
- A starting point for the development of your essay topic may be a theme, a particular concern, or an overarching question linking several texts.
- Your essay must include a thesis statement and develop a coherent argument like any other literary essay. It can (but does not have to) include a critical reading of a literary text based on one or more theoretical texts.
- You are expected to do thorough research on your theoretical texts.
- Please discuss your essay either with Prof. Dr. Elisabeth Bronfen or with one of her assistants in advance of writing it.
- The deadline for handing in your essay is March 1, 2022. Please hand in a PDF version of the paper (incl. the Selbstständigkeitserklärung) via e-mail to my assistant Morgane Ghilardi (morgane.ghilardi@es.uzh.ch) as well as a hardcopy in the pigeon hole at the secretary's office.
